A MESSAGE FROM FATHER

Greetings,

The Church, like a good mother, is very wise. She gives us a full seven weeks of Easter season. We need this extended time to reflect on those lessons Christ taught us in his passion and resurrection. Yes, we should be reflecting on these moments in our lives, good times that Christ reaches out to us for friendship.

I love to garden and raise plants, not always having the time but I enjoy it and our souls seem to have the same kinds of needs. Plants have to spend time outside to gradually absorb the sunlight and transform it into nutrients. Just as our souls have to spend time basking in the light of Christ's revelation, so that we can absorb the grace God wants to give us. We need time to reflect and soak it all in during this season of Easter.

Today especially, we are reminded of the New Commandment that Christ gave us the day before he suffered. We are brought back to that Last Supper, when Jesus was gathered with his closest companions and opened his heart to them. It was the night when his heart overflowed with love as it never had before.

It was the night when he revealed the secret identity of every Christian. One might ask now what was that mark? So simple and yet so complex was this very distinguishing mark: "This is how all will know that you are my disciples," he said, "if you have love for one another." This mark was not just any kind of love, but Christ-like love: "I give you a new commandment... As I have loved you, so you also should love one another."

Being a Christian is much more than being a member of a club. Being a Christian means having an urgent, important mission in life. It means being another Christ in the world. Jesus gave his very life in order to fulfill his Father's will and win salvation for sinners.

Each one of us is called to reproduce in the unique circumstances of our lives that exact same pattern: dedicating our lives to discovering and fulfilling God's will, and striving to help as many people as possible know, love, and follow Christ.

Graduates, you will embark on a great journey, remember to take time to reflect on the beauty of God's love for you and not just sit in front of the TV basking in Fortnite, or Game of Thrones. Maybe take a small break each day to calm yourselves and think about every good thing which you have in His name, His Love for you and how it all works in your life.

Blessings to you all, Fr Jim p.s. Please note that all are welcome to celebrate my 25th Anniversary of my Ordination on the 29th of May at the 12:15 Mass followed by a luncheon and/or at 6pm supper and entertainment that evening. We did not send out invites to the whole church for cost saving measures but please know you are welcome.

SUMMER WOW (WOMEN OF THE WORD) BIBLE STUDY

Please join your Sisters in Christ for a 7 part series by EWTN called, "Angels of God" by Father John Horgan.

St. Thomas Aquinas tells us that "The angels work together for the benefit of all," and Fr John Horgan's "Angels of God" teaches us all about wondrous spiritual beings, created to draw us closer into that fidelity which characterizes the life of the angels. It helps us understand why their ministry to our spiritual formation is so important.

All Mondays at 9:00 am in the Multipurpose Room
